

texto oral.

Objetivo: identificar información explícita de un

Listening comprehension handout

- PARA PODER RESPONDER LAS ACTIVIDADES, PRIMERO DEBES VER EL SIGUIENTE VIDEO:
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6XXGF_V8_7M.

1. Write T (true) or F (false).

- A) _____ Human rights are rights you don't have simply because you're a human being.
- B) _____ Human mean show you deserve to be treated.
- C) _____ There are 20 human rights.
- D) _____ At first, many people had the same rights.
- E) _____ Only children and adults have deserved human rights.
- F) _____ All types of religion deserve human rights.
- G) _____ At first, there were 30 human rights.
- H) _____ Slaves did not have human rights.
- I) _____ At the beginning, human rights were called natural laws.
- J) _____ natural laws had become to human rights.
- K) _____ at the beginning, only Europe had human rights.
- L) _____ Ghandi insisted that everyone has human rights, not only Europe.
- M) _____ In 1945, United Nations Association were created in order to reaffirm faith.
- N) _____ In 1946, the universal declaration of human rights was declared.

2. Answer the following questions.

- a) What do you think about human rights?

- b) Why is the Universal Declaration of Human Rights important to you?

- c) If you have to choose only one human, which one would you choose? Why?

texto oral.

Objetivo: identificar información explícita de un

d) Are human rights respected nowadays? Why?